

Table of Contents

Introduction. For a Renewed Protagonism of Historical Knowledge in Teacher Education Gianfranco Bandini	7
SECTION 1 THEORETICAL AND DIDACTIC REFLECTIONS
Historical Consciousness and the Development of a Values-based Gramscian Dialectic within Current Neo-liberal Narratives of Teacher Education Nick Mead	13
Technological Innovation and Education Change. Some Lessons from the History of Educational Technology Maria Ranieri	39
The Importance of Historical Knowledge in Teacher Training for School Inclusion Raffaele Ciambrone	55
Historical-educational Memory in Teachers' Training to Promote an Equal and Inclusive Culture Francesca Dello Preite, Dalila Forni	71
The Historical Thinking Skills of Future Teachers Through the Development of Materials for/with Schools Sara González Gómez	87

Teacher Education. A Perfect Place for an Applied Public History Approach Gianfranco Bandini	101
Historical Consciousness and Global Competence in Teacher Education Davide Capperucci, Laura Boynton Hauerwas	115
SECTION 2
EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCES AND TESTIMONIES
Neoliberalism and Teachers' Mentality: The Contribution of Oral History Chiara Martinelli	141
Scuola-Città Pestalozzi: An Example of Experimental School Where Past and Present Intersect to Look Towards the Future Valentina Giovannini, Matteo Bianchini	151
The Importance of Historical Knowledge. Intergenerational Testimonies. The 'Vite di IMI' Museum in Rome Raffaella Biagioli	157
Teacher Training Between Structured Pathways and Communities of Practice Gabriele Marini	163
The Dual Mode of the Traineeship as an Opportunity to Equip Future Teachers with an Embedded Pathway Laura Innocenti, Ilaria Giachi	169
Values, Reflexivity, and Critical Thinking in Teaching and Internship Activities: The Experience of a Group of Primary Education Science Students in Florence Fabrizio Rozzi	177
Crushed by the Present, Nostalgic for the Past. The Point of View of a School Principal Patrizia Giorgi	187
Authors	193
Index of Names	197