

Table of Contents

Preface	7
Prof. Cristiano Ciappei
Introduction	9
1. A new, ancient language	9
2. The need of a strong foundation	11
3. Letting the ancient speak to the new, letting tradition generate creativity	12
Chapter One: Toward a Global Business Ethics	15
1. Why a global business ethic?	15
2. A historical overview of Global Ethics models	16
3. The 1993 Declaration toward a Global Ethic: The basic principles	17
4. Legacy of the Declaration towards a Global Ethic	23
5. A critique to the work of Hans Küng: From global ethics to a syncretistic degeneration of global ethics	24

Chapter Two: A Critique to Modern CSR	35
1. Corporate Social Responsibility and the Stakeholder Theory	35
2. Critique to CSR: A general perspective	46
Chapter Three: A Religious and Wise Foundation for a Global Business Ethics	59
1. A Neo-Reinassance business ethics for a planetary humanism	59
2. Ethics in a proposal of action complexity	61
3. The threat of Techno-Nihilism and Techno-Materialism	65
4. The opportunity of an ICT Neo-Humanism	66
5. Wisdom traditions for a Global Business Ethics	76
6. Wisdom Business Ethics applied to the junction between specific topics and particular religions	78
Chapter Four: Nine Religions for Nine Business Ethics Issues	85
1. The light of religions	85
2. Religions and Business Ethics	110
3. Conclusion	157
Chapter Five: Religions as a Source of Work Ethics	159
1. Work in the religious discourse	159
2. Judaism and Work	162
3. Christianity and Work	166
4. Islam and Work	170
5. Hinduism and Work	175
6. Buddhism and Work	180
7. Taoism and Work	185
8. Confucianism and Work	188
9. Animism and Work	192
10. Zoroastrianism and Work	194
11. Foundations of a global work ethics	198
Bibliography	199
Sitography	243
Index of names	247