

---

INDEX

---

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| Preface   | 9          |
| Prof. Maria De Santis   |            |
| Introduction. Community-focussed urban answers for post-seismic trauma    | 13         |
| Traumatic experiences  | 15  |
| Glossary of trauma  | 17         |
| Phases of post-seismic trauma   | 21         |
| Post-emergency management  | 25  |
| Italian post-emergency evolution  | 27         |
| International post-emergency management examples                          | 67         |
| Case study   | 99  |
| The 2016/2017 earthquake in Italy   | 99         |
| The village of Accumoli   | 111        |
| The non-village of Accumoli S.A.E.  | 166        |
| Difficulties in post-seismic communities                                  | 229        |
| Research method  | 239 |
| Tools for social and design research                                      | 241        |
| Social and demographic analysis   | 249        |
| Interpretation of the past  | 281        |
| Reconnect the social fabric  | 293 |
| Approach to design  | 295        |
| Design strategies   | 306        |
| Conclusion  | 367        |
| Afterword. Refining the analytical sensitivity on post-seismic habitation | 373        |
| Prof. Paolo Costa   |            |