

Contents

PART I – CRITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Methods or tools? Adriano Magliocco	11
Doctoral research in architectural technology between methodology and competitiveness. Strategies for internationalization, operability and qualifying skills. Theo Zaffagnini	19

PART II – SCHOLARLY RESEARCH

Sustainability in architecture thirty years after the Brundtland Report: a critical approach Maria Canepa	31
The sustainability in the rehabilitation of minor historic centres Chiara Marchionni	41
Urban living: a new emergency housing Silvia Covarino	51
Urban Agriculture: a strategy for the sustainable city Chiara Casazza	65
The rating system LEED for Healthcare facilities in Italy Ginevra Bruscoli	81
Green Airport Design Evaluation Paolina Ferrulli	91
Halfway housing for inmates Luigi Vessella	105

Comparison of methodologies : creativity to develop design projects Janaina Luisa da Silva Moroni	119
Airport Lean Design Filippo Bosi	139
Italian construction Medium Sized firms internationalization Silvia Gobbi	151
Disposable terminal design Elisabetta Fossi	165
PART III – CONCLUSIONS
Scholarly research: it's a matter of method Maria Antonietta Esposito	175