

Table of contents

Introduction
An Archaeology of Modernism	11
Gazes	11
Les Demoiselles d'Avignon , Some Basic Facts	13
Readings for the Young Ladies	14
Contexts	16
Acknowledgements	19
Chapter 1
Bodies of Tow and Paraffin	23
The Alarm Spreads	23
Playing to Distract: Picasso's Declarations	25
Chapter 2
"Naked Problems". Origin and Reach of the Formalist Interpretations	29
Chapter 3
Other Criteria. Problematic Nudes	37
Thwarting Formalism	37
Stories of Sex and Fatal Seduction. The Inescapable Version of Leo Steinberg	42
Chapter 4
After Steinberg: Contextualist Interpretations	49
Delving into Picasso's Biography	50

Picasso on the Couch	57
Cultural Contexts: the Fabulous Encounter of Malaga and Cubism	60
Chapter 5
“We are all Demoiselles d’Avignon” or the Breaching of the Dominant Gaze	67
“Nothing for women in this Game”, the Feminist Perspective	68
The Colonial Question and the Debate on Art Nègre	77
Post-colonial Criticism and the Question of the Subalternity	85
Ex Africa semper aliquid novi : Picasso in Africa	92
Carl Einstein Revisited	98
Chapter 6
After Picasso: Reinterpretations and recreations of Les Demoiselles D’Avignon in Contemporary Art	103
Pop Art Recreations	105
Appropriating Picasso	107
The Emergence of Other Gazes	111
Epilogue	125
Bibliography	127
Index of names	135