

List of Authors

VANNA BOFFO is Full Professor of Adult Education, currently Head of the Department of Education, Languages, Interculture, Literatures and Psychology, University of Florence, where she also acts as Coordinator of the PhD program in Education and Psychology. Her research focuses on Adult Learning and Higher Education, in particular on the relations of employability and competences, and on the challenges of active ageing.

Email: vanna.boffo@unifi.it.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-6502-2484>

VANESSA BEU is Research Fellow at the Professorship for Adult and Continuing Education, Julius Maximilian University of Würzburg. Her research focuses on vocational and in-company continuing education.

Email: vanessa.beu@uni-wuerzburg.de.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-6234-8841>

LISA BREITSCHWERDT is Research Fellow at the Professorship for Adult and Continuing Education, Julius Maximilian University in Würzburg. Her work deals with issues of professionalisation, organisations and digitalisation in adult and continuing education.

Email: lisa.breitschwerdt@uni-wuerzburg.de.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-1148-2864>

JENNIFER DANQUAH is Research Fellow at the Professorship of Adult and Continuing Education, University of Würzburg. Her research focuses on diversity and inclusion, as well as on social transformation in adult learning and education.

Email: jennifer.danquah@uni-wuerzburg.de.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-3811-2561>

PAOLO DIRIENZO is Full Professor of Adult Education and Lifelong Learning at the Department of Education, Roma Tre University. He is Head of the Laboratory of Qualitative Methods in Adult Education and Director of the Master of HR SPECIALIST - Human Resources Professionals.

Email: paolo.dirienzo@uniroma3.it.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-6774-9516>

REGINA EGETENMEYER is Full Professor of Adult and Continuing Education, Julius Maximilian University in Würzburg. Her research interests include professionalisation in adult education, and in particular, issues of academic professionalisation and international mobility. She also researches internationalisation and digitalisation in adult education.

Email: regina.egetenmeyer@uni-wuerzburg.de.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-8907-5583>

PAOLO FEDERIGHI is Honorary Professor of Adult and Continuing Education and a member of the Hall of Fame of Adult Education. Currently, he is a consultant for Ecorys and ICF for the analysis of national adult learning policies. He has been a consultant for Unesco-Institute of Lifelong Learning and for OECD. His comparative research has focused on lifelong learning policies, policy learning and policy transfer, and public policies supporting innovation in the manufacturing sector, as well as applied research in private firms in the field of workplace learning for high skilled workers and knowledge management.

Email: paolo.federighi@unifi.it.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-5041-7443>

FRANCESCO VINCENZO FERRARO is Lecturer in Therapy and Rehabilitation, University of Derby. He has developed rigorous scientific methods aimed at solving clinical and sports research questions, applying them to? international collaborations and projects funded by UKRI, the EU and the Chinese government.

Email: f.ferraro@derby.ac.uk.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4902-7760>

DANIELA FRISON is Associate Professor of Experimental Pedagogy at the Department of Education, Languages, Interculture, Literatures and Psychology, University of Florence, where she also acts as Department and School of Education Delegate for Guidance and Job Placement. Her research encompasses the initial education and professional development of secondary school teachers, and the design of guidance, tutoring, and professional development interventions for future and in-service secondary school teachers, education, and training professionals.

Email: daniela.frison@unifi.it.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-6019-2660>

PAULA GUIMARÃES is Assistant Professor at the Instituto de Educação, Universidade de Lisboa (Portugal), where she teaches adult education and public policies. Her research has focused on adult education and public policies, on which she published journal articles and monographs.

Email: pguimaraes@ie.ulisboa.pt.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-2197-1004>

MARIA LUISA IAVARONE is Full Professor of Experimental Pedagogy at the Department of Sport Sciences and Wellness, University of Naples “Parthenope”, where she teaches courses on General Didactics. Her recent research focuses on ‘body educational caring’ as a self-development process in terms of building overall wellbeing, wellness, and risk prevention. More specifically, it focuses on the development of training paths for the cognitive, emotional, and existential development of human beings.

Email: marialuisa.iavarone@uniparthenope.it.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-9246-2696>

MATEJA KOVŠKA holds a Master Degree in Adult Education. Her research interests include issues of professionalisation of adult education, professional development of adult educators, and reflective tools in adult education.

Email: m.kovska@gmail.com.

THOMAS LICHTENBERG works for Deutscher Volkshochschul-Verband e.V., the German Adult Education Association. He is the Regional Director of Regional Office Caucasus and Turkey (Georgia), and he is also in charge of monitoring and evaluation, as well as for funding and monitoring Curriculum InstitutionALE.

Email: lichtenberg@dvv-international.de.

DINO MANCARELLA is a PhD candidate in Educational Sciences and Psychology at the University of Florence. His research focuses on the relationship between Higher Education and the pedagogical dimension of employability, with a particular focus on transversal and professional competences.

Email: dino.mancarella@unifi.it.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-6093-3086>

BORUT MIKULEC is Associate Professor of Adult Education at the Department of Educational Sciences, Faculty of Arts, University of Ljubljana. He researches the policy of adult education and learning from a comparative European and global perspective.

Email: borut.mikulec@ff.uni-lj.si.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4500-3091>

BALÁZS NÉMETH is Associate Professor of Adult Learning and Education at the University of Pécs, Hungary. He has written on the European lifelong learning policy within the Lisbon strategic planning, and he has explored the role of university continuing education in Hungary (globalisation, lifelong learning, and their impact on adult education in Central East-European countries).

Email: nemeth.balazs@pte.hu.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4916-5741>

IVAN NIŠAVIĆ is Research Fellow at the Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, University of Belgrade. His main research interests include Hellenistic, especially Epicurean philosophy, and the philosophy of education, as well as issues of ethics and epistemology. Currently, he is Coordinator of the Laboratory of Educational Theories (EduLab) and guest lecturer in Andragogy (course in Philosophy of Adult Education), at the Faculty of Philosophy, University of Belgrade.

Email: ivan.nisavic@ifdt.bg.ac.rs.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-7327-2718>

ROBERTA PIAZZA is Full Professor of General and Social Pedagogy at the Department of Education, University of Catania, where she teaches Pedagogy and Adult Education. She is Coordinator of the Degree in Educational Sciences (2018-) and President of the University Research Centre on Community Engagement, CURE; previously, she also acted as vice-Rector for Continuing Education and Lifelong learning (2017-2019).

Email: r.piazza@unict.it.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-0478-9577>

KATARINA POPOVIĆ is Professor at the Department for Andragogy, Faculty of Philosophy, University of Belgrade (Serbia). She acts as General Secretary of the International Council for Adult Education (ICAE), and as President of the Serbian Adult Education Society, Vice-president of International Society for Comparative Adult Education (ISCAE), and as Co-chair of the Academia and Education Stakeholder Group. She has written on education and lifelong learning and is a certified trainer (Switzerland) in adult education.

Email: kpopovic@f.bg.ac.rs.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-7664-8880>

SABINE SCHMIDT-LAUFF is Professor for Continuing Education and Lifelong Learning, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Helmut-Schmidt-Universität/University of the Federal Armed Forces (Hamburg). She has worked on a number of fields, including professionalisation, professionalism and the professional self in adult education; comparative international research on lifelong learning; vocational education, training, and adult learning; temporal and time-related challenges for adult learning in modernity; continuing higher education and non-traditional students.

Email: schmidt-lauff@hsu-hh.de.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-5657-7488>

CONCETTA TINO is PhD candidate in Pedagogical, Educational and Instructional Sciences at University of Padua. Her main research interests include work-related learning; soft skills development and assessment; professional profile of boundary spanners; and women's leadership. Recently, she has authored two journal articles, "Career planning, proactivity, self-employability, and labour market: undergraduates' perceptions" (with M. Fedeli) and "Women's career decision making and interest in engineering: a qualitative analysis of influential personal and contextual factors" (with M.C. Lavagnolo, M. Fedeli, and L. Bierema).

Email: concetta.tino@unipd.it.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-5397-9473>

FABIO TOGNI is Associate Professor of General and Social Pedagogy. Since 2019, he has also acted as secretary of the PhD Programme in Education Sciences and Psychology at University of Florence. Over the last few years, he has been involved with Design and Quality Assurance in Higher Education and Embedded elements of Adult Education.

Email: fabio.togni@unifi.it.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-3693-5209>

FRANCESCA TORLONE is Associate Professor in General and Social Pedagogy at University of Florence. Her research fields include learning actions at the meso and at the macro level, policy learning and policy transfer processes within regional and local governments, as well as the management of adult education and learning processes within organisations. She has authored several articles and essays about low-skilled adults and workers, embedding learning in the workplace, and prison andragogy. She was a member of one of the Research Ethics Committees at higher education level.

Email: francesca.torlone@unifi.it.

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-4772-1588>

