

Table of Contents

Introduction	13
Maria Luisa Vallauri
1. A Starting Point: Who Care for Those Who Care?	13
2. Objectives and Goals of the Project	14
3. The Consortium	15
4. The Outputs of the Project	15
5. The Methodology	16
6. Presentation of the Publication	16
Acknowledgements	17
Chapter 1
Comparative Care Workers' Discrimination Map Report	19
Ferran Camas Roda, Andrea Cano Redondo, Anna Molina García, Marc Saez Zafra, Dolors Juvinyà Canal, Maria Antonia Barceló Rado, Michele Mazzetti
1. Executive Summary	19
2. Methodology	20
3. Conceptualization	23
3.1 Discrimination and Harassment	23
3.2 Equality Bodies (or Entities for the Promotion of Equal Treatment)	23
3.3 Undeclared Work	24
3.4 Informal Economy	24
3.5 Undocumented Migrants (or "Irregular Migrants")	25

FUP Best Practice in Scholarly Publishing (DOI 10.36253/fup_best_practice)

Maria Luisa Vallauri, William Chiaromonte (edited by), CARE4CARE We Care for Those Who Care – Vol. II. Discriminations in the Care Sector: National Legal Frameworks and Comparative Insights, © 2025 Author(s), CC BY 4.0, published by Firenze University Press, ISBN 979-12-215-0896-3, DOI 10.36253/979-12-215-0896-3

4. Map of Discrimination	25
4.1 Discrimination on the Basis of Gender	26
4.1.1 National Legislation on Gender Discrimination in Employment	26
4.1.2 Presence of Women Workers in the Care Sector	28
4.1.3 Provisions in Legislation or Collective Agreements on Employment Contracts, Occupational Classification, Wages, Health and Safety, Termination of the Contract or Social Benefits in the Care Sector	30
4.1.4 Provisions in Legislation or Collective Agreements for Reconciling Work and Family Life	36
4.1.5 Presence, Role and Effectiveness of Equality Bodies in Relation to the Rights of Workers in Care Occupations	37
4.2 Discrimination on the Basis of Migrant Status	38
4.2.1 National Legislation Against Discrimination on the Grounds of Race or Ethnic Origin, Religion or Belief, in the Field of Employment or Occupation	38
4.2.2 Legislation Concerning the Rights and Duties of Third-Country Nationals of the EU	39
4.2.3 Presence of Migrant Populations (Both EU and Non-EU Nationals) in Employment and in the Care Sector	42
4.2.4 Measures to Promote Migrant’s Access in the Care Sector	45
4.2.5 Activities of Equality Bodies or Organisations Regarding Racial, Ethnic or Religious Discrimination or the Rights of Migrant Workers in the Care Sector	46
4.2.6 Legislation on Harassment of Migrant Women Workers in the Domestic Sector or Exploitation in the Workplace with Respect to Undocumented or Irregular Migrant Workers	47
5. Conclusions	49
References	50

Chapter 2

French Care Workers’ Discrimination Map Report Isabelle Daugareilh, Guillaume Santoro, Haoussetou Traore	53
1. Mapping Gender Discrimination Among Care Workers	53
1.1 National Legislation on Sex Discrimination in the Field of Employment	56
1.1.1 Non-Discrimination Labor Law in the Private Sector	56

1.1.2 Non-Discrimination Law in the Civil Service	65
1.2 Comments on The Presence of Female Workers in the Care Sector	71
1.3 Publication of Statistics and Databases on the Care Sector	72
1.4 Description of Statistics and Databases	73
1.5 Legislation on the Care Sector and the Professions	74
1.5.1 Access Conditions	75
1.5.2 The Recruitment Procedure	79
1.5.3 Progression in the Profession	81
1.6 Legislation and Collective Agreements on Professional Classification in the Care Sector	84
1.7 Litigation or Disputes in the Media in France Over “Job Classification” in the Care Sector and Gender Discrimination	86
1.8 Provisions Specific to Employment Contracts in the Care Sector in Legislation or Collective Agreements	86
1.8.1 Recruitment	87
1.8.2 Vocational Training, Job Classification and Gender	90
1.8.3 Promotion, Career Development and Gender	91
1.8.4 Means and Scope for Combating Gender Discrimination	94
1.8.5 Bullying, Sexual Harassment, Violence and Gender	96
1.9 Litigation or Legal Disputes Concerning “Employment Contracts” in the Care Sector and Discrimination Based on Sex	97
1.10 Wage Provisions in Legislation or Collective Agreements in the Care Professions	97
1.11 Litigation or Disputes in the Media Concerning Pay in the Care Sector and Discrimination Based on Sex	99
1.12 Specific Provisions on Reconciling Work and Family Life in Legislation or Collective Agreements in the Care Sector	101
1.12.1 Night Work and Family and Social Responsibilities	101
1.12.2 The Societal Approach to Work-Life Balance	102
1.13 Statistics or Databases Published in Your Country on Accidents at Work or Occupational Diseases in the Care Sector as a Whole or in Each of the Jobs in the Care Sector According to the Sex of the Workers.	103
1.14 Statistics and Databases on the Proportion of Male and Female Workers in the Care Sector Workforce	103
1.15 Specific Provisions for Women on Health and Safety at Work in Legislation or Collective Agreements	108
1.15.1 Reducing Working Hours for Pregnant Women	108
1.15.2 Night Work and Pregnancy	109
1.15.3 Leave, Parenthood, Family Responsibilities and Gender	110
1.16 Summary and Commentary of Court Decisions	110
1.17 Specific Provision on Termination of Contract Distinguishing Between Men and Women in Each of These Professions?	110

1.18	Summary and Comments on Court Decisions	111
1.19	Specific Social Protection Provisions Distinguishing Between Men and Women in Each of These Professions	111
1.20	Legal Disputes Concerning the Granting of Social Benefits to Staff in the Care Sector Which Give Rise to Direct or Indirect Discrimination on the Grounds of Sex	111
1.21	Action by Equality Bodies	111
1.22	Compliance with International and European Obligations on Non-Discrimination on the Grounds of Sex in the Healthcare Sector	114
1.22.1	International Human Rights Law on Discrimination and Equality	114
1.22.2	European Union Law on Discrimination and Equality	115
2.	Mapping Discrimination Against Care Workers on Grounds of Origin	119
2.1	Brief Overview of National Legislation to Combat Discrimination Based on Racial or Ethnic Origin, Religion or Belief, in the Field of Employment or Occupation	119
2.2	Overview of Legislation on the Rights and Duties of “Foreign Nationals”: Nationals of Non-EU Countries (Entry and Work Conditions, Conditions for Family Members Entering the Country, etc.)	125
2.2.1	Entry and Work Conditions	125
2.2.2	Overview of French Legislation on the Rights and Duties of Non-EU Foreign Nationals Forms of Employment and Application of Employment Legislation to Foreign Nationals in All Sectors of Activity (no Specific Provisions for Workers in the Care Sector)	132
2.3	Brief Commentary on the Presence of Migrant Populations (EU And Non-EU Nationals) in Employment in France	138
2.4	Brief Commentary on the Presence of Migrant Populations (EU and Non-EU Nationals) in the Care Sector in France	141
2.5	Statistics or Databases Published in France on Foreigners Working in Each of the Professions in the Care Sector	142
2.6	Description of Available Statistics or Databases	143
2.7	Published Statistics or Databases on National, EU or Third Country Care Workers, Distinguishing on the Basis of Race, Ethnic Origin, Religion or Language	143
2.8	Describe the Statistics or Databases You Have Found, i.e. Summarise and Comment on the Data Found on the Participation of Workers in the Care Sector on the Basis of Race or Ethnicity, Religion and Language	143

2.9 Disputes or Mediatished Conflicts Concerning the Race or Ethnic Origin, Religion or Language of Staff Employed in the Care Sector	143
2.10 Statistics or Databases Published in France on Formal and Informal Employment Rates in the Care Sector	143
2.11 Description and Commentary on Statistics or Databases on the Participation of Migrant Workers in the Care Sector in the Formal or Informal Economy	143
2.12 Statistics or Databases Published in France on the Possible Presence of “Undocumented” or “Irregular” Immigrants (Without Authorisation to Reside or Work in Your Country) Likely to Be Employed in the Care Sector	143
2.13 Measures Taken in France to Facilitate Migrants’ Access to Work, Particularly in the Care Sector Existence of Staff Shortages in the Care Sector in France.	144
2.14 Equal Rights for Migrants With Residence and Work Permits in the Care Sector	151
2.15 Reference to Migrant or Foreigner Status in “Labor” Legislation or, Where Applicable, Collective Agreements in France in Each of the Professions in the Care Sector	152
2.16 Summary and Comments on Court Decisions	153
2.17 Specific Mention in Legislation on Foreigners or Immigration in France (for Example, on Residence or Work Permits, Family Reunification, Permit Renewal, etc.) of Professions in the Care Sector? Summary and Commentary of Court Decisions	153
2.18 Rights of Migrants Holding Residence Permits and Authorisation to Work in the Care Sector (in Each of These Professions) Equal Rights With Other Workers in Other Production Sectors	153
2.19 Summary and Commentary of Court Decisions on Indirect Discrimination Concerning Irregular Migrant Workers	153
2.20 Provisions in Collective Agreements Favouring the Integration of Migrant Workers in the Care Sector on the Basis of their Language, Religion, Particular Difficulties in Visiting their Families in Their Country of Origin, Ethnic Origin, etc.	154
2.21 Mediated Conflicts Between Migrant Workers in the Care Sector and Care Recipients in Terms of Non-Discrimination on the Basis of Ethnicity, Religion or Nationality	156
2.22 Statistics or Databases Published in France on the Wages of Migrant Workers in the Care Sector	156
2.23 Description of Statistics or Databases on Job Classification and Wages of Migrant Workers in the Care Sector	156

2.24 Rights of Irregular Migrants (Without Residence or Work Permits) With Regard to Employment in the Care Sector in France	156
2.24.1 Personal Rights	157
2.24.2 Rights Attached to the Exercise of a Professional Activity	160
2.24.3 The Right to Regularization Through Work	164
2.25 Summary and Commentary of Court Decisions	166
2.26 Measures Adopted by the State During the COVID 19 Pandemic to Enable “Undocumented” Foreign Staff to Obtain a Residence or Work Permit on a Permanent or Exceptional Basis	167
2.27 Measures Taken by the State After the COVID 19 Pandemic to Enable “Undocumented” Foreign Staff Employed “in the Care Sector” to Obtain a Residence or Work Permit	167
2.28 Reports or Studies by Bodies Promoting Equal Treatment or Combating Racial, Ethnic or Religious Discrimination in France on the Rights of Migrant Workers in the Care Sector	167
2.29 Actions or Reports by Bodies Promoting Equal Treatment or Combating Racial, Ethnic or Religious Discrimination in France on the Rights of Persons, Whatever Their Nationality, Working in the Care Sector	170
2.30 Legislation on Harassment (including Gender-Based Harassment and Sexual Harassment) of Women Workers in the Domestic Sector	172
2.31 Mechanisms in the Legislation to Combat Cases of Exploitation in the Workplace of Undocumented or Irregular Migrant Workers	172
Abbreviations	175
References	176
Chapter 3
German Care Workers’ Discrimination Map Report Ziga Podgornik-Jakil, Dominic Andres, Eva Kocher	183
1. Gender	183
1.2 General Overview	183
1.3 Statistics or Databases	185
1.4 Occupational Classification and Wages	189
1.5 Reconciling Work and Family Life	193
1.6 Accidents, Health and Safety at Work	196
1.7 Termination of Contract, Social Protection	198
1.8 Equality Bodies, Reports	199
1.9 General Legal Evaluation on No-Discrimination	200

2. Migrant Status	201
2.1 General Overview	202
2.2 Statistic or Databases on Foreign and Migrant Workers	207
2.3 Formal/Informal Employment	212
2.4 Facilitation of Migrants' Access to the Care Sector	215
2.5 Legal Situation (Labour Rights and Immigration Law)	216
2.6 Statistics on Salaries	221
2.7 Undocumented Workers	222
2.8 Equality Bodies, Reports	224
2.9 Legislation on Harassment of Women Workers in the Domestic Sector	226
2.10 Exploitation in the Workplace (Undocumented Migrant Workers)	228
Abbreviations	229
References	231
Chapter 4
Italian Care Workers' Discrimination Map Report Maria Luisa Vallauri, William Chiaromonte, Giulia Frosecchi, Samuele Renzi, Michele Mazzetti	237
1. Gender	237
2. Migrant Status	284
References	309
Chapter 5
Polish Care Workers' Discrimination Map Report Agata Ludera-Ruszel, Hubert Kotarski	315
1. Gender	315
2. Migrant Status	327
References	341
Chapter 6
Spanish Care Workers' Discrimination Map Report Ferran Camas Roda, Andrea Cano Redondo, Anna Molina García, Marc Saez Zafra, Dolors Juvinyà Canal, Maria Antonia Barceló Rado	343
1. Description of WP3 Based on the Project Report	343
1.1 Objectives	343
1.2 Description of Work, Lead Partner and Role of Participants	343
2. Explanatory Note on of the Concepts that will be Used in the Questionnaire	345
2.1 Notion of Discrimination (and Harassment)	345

2.2	Notion of Equality Bodies (or Entities for the Promotion of Equal Treatment)	345
2.3	Notion of Undeclared Work (UDW)	346
2.4	Notion of Informal Economy	347
2.5	Undocumented Migrants (or “Irregular Migrants”)	347
4.	Gender	347
4.	Migrant Status	370
	References	395
Chapter 7
	Swedish Care Workers’ Discrimination Map Report	399
	Jenny Julén Votinius
1.	Gender	399
2.	Migrant Status	419
	References	448